Hi, my name is Chern'ee Sutton and I am an Indigenous artist and my heritage lies with the Kalkadoon people from Mount Isa in Queensland. My Great, Great, Great grandmother is listed as an apical ancestor for the Kalkadoon people and my uncle is chairman of Kalkadoon communities.

I started painting in June 2010 when encouraged by my school to enter the Yoorellgoo indigenous art competition on 25/6/2010, I have always enjoyed drawing and art but had not painted before. I won first place in the open category for my painting and have been painting madly ever since.

4/10/10 I entered 2 paintings in the Bundaberg arts festival, one was named "Our home our land" and the other was named "Oil slick", both paintings were sold.

16/12/2010 after adding my artwork to the C.Q.I.D. Central Queensland Indigineous Development logo as a donation for the CEO a permanent exhibition was hung in the C.Q.I.D Bundaberg offices. I have since donated 2 of those paintings.

Artwork featured in 2010/2011 Kepnock High School magazine

Artwork featured in C.Q.I.D. Central Queensland Indigineous Development strategic plan book for 2011 to 2013

12/1/ 2011 I auctioned off a painting called "Gindjorra" and poem through the local newspaper for the flood victims of Bundaberg and raised $1,950.00 which was donated to the junior cricket and netball clubs to help the kids get back out and play again.

4/3/ 2011 I painted and sold a painting called "homeless" for community solutions youth support" which will be rotated and displayed throughout schools in the Bundaberg District to bring wider attention to "youth homelessness matters day".

6/4/ 2011 I designed a banner for "Close the gap day" for Kepnock High School which is now hung in the hall.

3/5/ 2011 I designed the new logo for I.L.E.E.P. which is Indigenous Learning Education Engagement Place which will be used on their shirt emblems at Kepnock High School.

10/5/ 2011 I donated one of my paintings called "listen" as the major prize to the Bundaberg mayors chaplaincy support raffle which highlighted the need for all young Australians to be able to be listened to by the school chaplains without fear of judgement or criticism. This fundraiser through donations and the raffle raised a much needed $14,000.00.

18/5/2011 Asked to participate and help teach students indigenous painting techniques in a program called 'Art From The Heart' which is run by Queensland police.

25/5/2011 I donated a painting named "light the way to a brighter future" to a local cancer fundraiser and raffle.

27/5/2011 my painting "Waru-Waru" was exhibited in Childers Art Space in the emerging artists space in an exhibition called "showtime", my painting was sold at this exhibition.

1/6/2011 1 painting entered in Bundaberg Regional Show, 1 painting commissioned.

7/6/2011 Art From The Heart project started and ran for 8 weeks in Bundaberg which included 2 different schools and the P.C.Y.C.
