2 Purpose

This document outlines the Indigenous Art Code Limited's (IartC) membership policy, including: the membership eligibility criteria, responsibilities, rights and privileges of members.

3 Scope

The policy puts into effect provisions outlined in the Indigenous Art Code (the Code) and the Constitution of the Indigenous Art Code Limited (the Constitution) and references them accordingly. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Code and the Constitution.

This policy applies to all member applicants and all IartC members and will be consistently administered by IartC.

4 Definitions

Agent	A person or organisation who sells Artwork for or on behalf of an Artist in return for a commission.
Agreement	A written or verbal agreement between a Dealer Member and an Artist for the supply or acquisition of Artwork.
Application	A duly completed and signed application for membership of the Company in the form determined from time to time by the Directors, under which applicants who are Dealers agree, amongst other things, to become a signatory to the Code.
Dealer	An Agent, person or organisation who acquires Artwork, or who carries on a business involving the acquisition of Artwork, for re-supply by means of sale or other distribution.
Artist	An artist, whether living or deceased, of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent who identifies, or who, prior to their death, identified, as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander, and is, or, prior to their death was, recognised as such by members of the community with which the artist identifies or identified.
Artist representative	A person who is authorised by the Artist to speak or act for the Artist but does not include an Agent.
Artwork	A work of visual art or craft produced by an Artist, whether or not incorporated into another work of visual art or craft produced by that Artist or another person, including but not limited to painting, drawing, artists' books, woodwork, ceramics, glass, jewellery, sculpture, fibre work, printmaking, photography, installation, video and multimedia.
(the) Code	The Indigenous Art Code.

Code Supporter Member	Persons who are collectors of Artwork and/or supportive of the objects of the Code and the Company (but who are not Dealers) who have applied in the correct form (which does not include agreeing to become a signatory to the Code) and whose Applications have been approved by the Directors under Rule 5.4.
(the) Constitution	Constitution of the Indigenous Art Code Limited.
lartC	The Indigenous Art Code Limited (also referred to as “the Company” in the Constitution and Code).
Dealer Member	A Dealer who is a member of the Company and a signatory to the Code.
Member	A person admitted to the membership of the Company in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.

5 Principles

This policy will be implemented consistent with the following principles:

Aligned	This policy derives from the Code and Constitution. All content following is aligned to these two critical documents.
Compliant	This policy is compliant with privacy laws and other legislation, plus lartC legal responsibilities.
Open	This policy, and key supporting documentation, will be public. lartC will provide applicants and members with clear and timely information around decisions.
Transparent	The policy will be administered and applied using clear, transparent and consistent processes.
Efficient	The policy will be administered as efficiently as possible within lartC’s current resources.

6 Membership Categories

lartC has three categories of members:

1. Dealer Member
2. Artist Member
3. Code Supporter Member

All members can attend General Meetings.

All members must be 18 years of age or older. Specific eligibility criteria, responsibilities, rights and privileges for each category are documented below.

5.1 Dealer Members

6.1.1 Eligibility

To become an IartC Dealer Member, applicants must:

- i. Be an Agent; or
